

Box junction fines uk

A box junction PCN is £130, which can be reduced to £65 if paid within 14 days. Box junctions are designed to keep traffic moving at busy intersections. Exception: You can only wait inside the ...

New driving regulations in the UK are leading to increased fines and penalties for motorists. Proposals include fines up to £1,000 and insurance increases for breaking driving rules, with ...

Councils have been granted increased powers, resulting in nearly £1 million in fines issued from yellow box junction violations within a year. The Driver and Vehicle Standards Agency (DVSA) ...

The fines are generally £70 (reduced to £35 if paid within 21 days of the date of issue) but the sheer volume has meant that drivers paid out more than £1 million in yellow box junction fines ...

For those who are fined, the penalty charge notice (PCN) is £70, reduced to £35 if paid within 21 days of it being issued. Although some are angry about the scheme, Aylwin Jerome, who's ...

Drivers face £1million worth of fines in a crackdown - as councils gain extra yellow box junction powers. Road users were hit with fines totalling nearly £1million from just 36 yellow box ...

Road users were hit with fines totalling nearly £1million from just 36 yellow box junctions outside London and Cardiff last year. 10 local authorities are newly enforcing traffic measures -...

Drivers in ten local authority areas newly enforcing yellow box junction rules paid almost £1m in fines last year, according to new data from the RAC. Before May 2022, only London and ...

Lifestyle Motoring Cars Drivers issued pedestrian warning as little-known rule risks £100 fines UK motorists have been warned over a strict three-year-old Highway rule that still seems to be ...

“Sometimes I want to shout move!”: Life next to yellow box junction raking in thousands in fines
Ethan Davies Wed, 2 July 2025, 11:00 am GMT-4 183; 4-min read

UK motorists are facing a series of new and intensified penalties under recently proposed and implemented driving regulations. Drivers risk fines up to £2,500 and points on their licences for ...

Over the previous three summer holiday periods the council has carried out Stanningley Bypass joint and resurfacing repairs work, as part of the highway's annual maintenance programme. ...

The UK government and local councils have introduced a series of new and intensified driving regulations and enforcement measures leading to substantial fines and penalties for motorists. ...

Box junction fines uk

