

The dynamics of the electricity market in Europe in 2025 Primary electricity sources in Europe Europe's electricity market is characterized by a diverse array of energy sources. The main source of electricity across the ...

eSett is a company providing settlement services to electricity market participants in Denmark, Finland, Norway and Sweden. We settle, together! Need for assistance or any questions to eSett? Create a service ...

Denmark's wind sector: Critical turbine technologies must be kept under European control This is one of the industry's biggest dilemmas: Should Europe be able to do everything itself or accept ...

Corporate sustainability reporting EU rules require large companies and listed companies to publish regular reports on the social and environmental risks they face, and on how their activities impact people and the environment.

Based on the outlined empowerment, NERSA is formulating Electricity Trading Rules, including Import and Export Trading Rules, under section 35 of the ERA. These rules are designed to ...

With the announcement, Denmark aims to build between 4 to 6 gigawatts of electrolysis capacity by 2030. 6 GW will put Denmark amongst Europe's top three. The strategy will push for the production and use of green ...

Denmark and BC have implemented strict requirements in building codes and other related regulations ensuring that new buildings are healthy, comfortable, and energy efficient. These actions, in conjunction with various ...

Following European Union guidelines, Denmark has achieved a significant technological advancement in energy management by ensuring the implementation of smart meters in 100% of its households. These meters, ...

Denmark electricity regulations

