

Drax energy solutions

Drax is currently seeking public subsidies to install two carbon capture units at its UK power station, and Drax burns more US-sourced wood pellets than any other power station in the world. Drax has also publicly discussed plans to construct ...

The company shared insights on how they envision tackling this future challenge, emphasizing Drax's role in providing sustainable energy solutions to meet the increasing demand driven by ...

That's why we're absolutely thrilled to have the Drax Foundation's continued financial and collaborative support. Recently, the Drax Foundation committed $100,000 to PLT to expand ...

The energy produced by Drax is classified as renewable under UK and EU law, under the premise that it uses trees which can be replanted to recapture carbon and is therefore considered carbon neutral - though the ...

Drax power station is once again the UK's largest single source of carbon emissions, according to new analysis from think tank Ember. Emissions from the biomass-burning power plant rose to ...

Appointment of new Chief Financial Officer The Board of Drax Group plc ("Drax" or the "Company") is pleased to announce agreement has been reached for the appointment of ...

Electrical and Instrumentation Specialist Full-time, Permanent On-site Location: Aliceville, AL At Drax, we're not just making promises; we're creating real solutions. As a leader in renewable energy, we are dedicated to generating ...

Welcome back to the newest edition of the Drax Energy Solutions LinkedIn newsletter! Looking back at our activity in June, this edition features: ? Helping Werfen keep pace with NHS ...

The acquisition unites climate policy expertise and emissions strategy with digital infrastructure and delivery at scale - accelerating trusted, measurable climate action worldwide. CALGARY, ...

Drax reports higher half-year profit on robust demand, elevated prices British power generator Drax Group reported a rise in half-year profit on Thursday, buoyed by robust demand for renewable power and substantially ...

Drax energy solutions

