Is itechworld a good battery company?

I haven't got an iTechWorld battery but I recently purchased a lithium battery, and during my research it appeared iTechWorld was highly regarded as a quality company. A bloke on YouTube by the name of Explore Bound has previously done a review on them, but there's a whole bunch of other videos there too.

Where can I buy iTechworld products?

You can buy iTechworld products online for fast delivery or visit our Perth store in Burswood.

Do you recommend itechworld equipment?

Love my iTechworld equipment and can't recommend highly enough. Had a power outage at home and the ps2000 saved the day, used it for boiling the kettle and it did it with ease.

Is iTech a good brand?

Itech- Started good, but not anymore Great unit but the AC ports no longer work. Unit is about 18 months old. Only 12 month warranty which for such an expensive product and Australian made which seems about 12 to 24 months short. Probably wouldn't bother with Itech stuff in the future when there are cheaper options that seem to.

iTech Minerals managing director Mike Schwarz said: "The Reynolds Range Lithium Project is a new lithium pegmatite discovery in the Northern Territory. ... iTech believes it will take the technical capability and financial resources of one of the world's largest lithium chemical producers, like SQM, to fully capture the value of this ...

The ITECH claims to accept input voltages of 11-24V, but when I connected the Anderson-5mm converter to the Anderson plug on my camper, the ITECH did absolutely nothing. There was still 34% battery remaining, so it's not a case of the BMS shutting the lithium battery down. Thinking there was some issue with the trailer, I tried the same thing ...
