

The Carbon Market Regulations Tracker is developed to enhance the understanding and transparency of carbon market regulations, and support governments, project developers, investors, and other market participants in ...

Non-tariff barriers and emerging regulatory clashes remain the main areas of contention in South Korean negotiations even as the 90-day pause on former 25% U.S. tariffs is set to expire on ...

The principal law governing the ownership and structure of the power industry in South Korea is the Electric Utility Act. It defines electricity business as including the electricity generation ...

The South Korea electricity monitor market is a crucial part of the nation's energy infrastructure, driving innovation and efficiency within the electrical sector. With rapid technological ...

In a policy consultation meeting held at the National Assembly in western Seoul on Tuesday, officials agreed to adjust the electricity billing brackets for the two summer months to the ...

The Ministry of Food and Drug Safety (MFDS) has announced a draft revision of the "Standards and Specifications for Food Additives" (Notice No. 2024-308). The changes aim to ease regulations requiring proof of natural ...

The electric lifts market is an integral part of the global infrastructure industry, with demand expected to grow substantially in the coming years. In South Korea, the adoption of electric lifts ...

- South Korea's ruling party accelerates crypto regulations aligned with the U.S. GENIUS Act to boost blockchain leadership and address market uncertainty. - Proposed reforms include a ...

The global electricity fire monitor market is experiencing robust growth, driven by increasing investments in electrical safety infrastructure across various sectors, including industrial ...

In South Korea, natural nicotine - extracted from tobacco - is subject to tobacco regulations while synthetic nicotine is not classified as tobacco under the current Tobacco Business Act and, thereby, is not subject to ...

